

Kern Ag Foundation
Joe D. Garone Memorial Scholarship
Instructions/Information

Joe D. Garone was a founding member of the Kern Agricultural Foundation and driving force in the effort to build the current Kern High School District School Farm and the Kern Ag Pavilion. His efforts have since resulted in the property development where you can now find the Kern High School District Regional Occupation Center, the Bakersfield Adult School, the KHSD Maintenance and Operations Center and the KHSD Transportation Hub. There are countless students who have had benefited from Joe's passion for agriculture. This scholarship is the Garone Family and the Kern Ag Foundation's way of remembering this great man and all he has done for agriculture education.
