Ronald R. Lehr Sr. Memorial Ag Scholarship Scholarship-Cover Letter

Lehr Brothers was established in 1938 by Leo Lehr. Ron, Leo's son, enjoyed growing up in our farming community. He attended East Bakersfield High and was a standout athlete at Bakersfield College in football. A true farmer in every sense, he excelled in the potato business and later added citrus to his livelihood. In 1978, Ron purchased the business from family partners and established Lehr Brothers Inc. To continue his legacy of success in Kern County agriculture, the Ronald R. Lehr Sr. memorial Scholarship hopes to aid the needs of agriculture's next generation.
